

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
GREAT FALLS DIVISION

ROSEBUD SIOUX TRIBE, et al. , Plaintiffs, v. U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, et al. , Defendants.	CV 20-109-GF-BMM ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION FOR STAY
---	---

This matter comes before the Court on the parties' Joint Motion for Stay. Having considered the motion and finding that good cause exists to grant the relief requested, the motion is hereby GRANTED. The case is hereby STAYED. Within 60 days of this order, the parties shall submit a status report advising the Court whether a continued stay is warranted or if litigation deadlines should be reinstated, in which case the parties shall propose a revised litigation schedule.

Defendants shall notify the Court if TC Energy provides notice to the Court in Rosebud Sioux Tribe v. Biden, No. 4:18-cv-118, of its intention to move forward with construction of the main pipeline or new pump station. Defendants also will notify the Court if TC Energy requests a notice to proceed from the U.S. Bureau of Land Management (“BLM”) or schedules a preconstruction conference with BLM.

DATED this 4th day of February, 2021.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Brian Morris". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line extending from the end of the name.

Brian Morris, Chief District Judge
United States District Court